The background features a blue-to-white gradient with a grid of light blue lines that converge towards the center, creating a perspective effect similar to a globe. Silhouettes of several business professionals in suits are scattered across the scene, some standing in pairs and others alone, adding a professional and global feel to the advertisement.

A close-up photograph of a computer keyboard. The central focus is a large, rectangular blue key with the words "Thank You!" printed in white, sans-serif font. Surrounding this key are several white keys with standard symbols: a hyphen/underscore and curly brace, a copyright symbol and curly brace, and an "alt" key. The lighting is soft, highlighting the texture of the keys and the vibrant blue of the central key.

Thank You!
